35 Kingfisher Drive

The frontage has off street parking plus lawn and border to the side of the driveway. There are external doors to a recycling cupboard and a boiler cupboard. The main entrance door leads into a welcoming hall with period style woodblock floor. The property could operate as two units, - stairs from the hall go up to 1st floor living space and 2nd floor bedrooms and bathroom, whilst a door off the hall leads into a self contained ground floor annex. This has a full bathroom off the hall, a large studio lounge/bedroom over 27 ft with inbuilt cupboards and front double glazed fanlight windows, a rear conservatory, and a kitchenette with fitted units, worktops, inset sink unit, pull out racked pantry cupboard, spaces for appliances and double glazed rear windows. The bathroom has a panel enclosed bath with tiled surround, wash hand basin with cabinet under and an additional alcove with a WC and cupboards.

Stairs from the hall lead up to the 1st floor where a glazed door enters a wide and deep lounge over 17ft x 16ft with attractive period floorboarding. This reception space is flooded with light from room width windows and a front aspect through to the Riverside Lands. To the rear is an additional dining area with pendant lighting and an arch into the main kitchen with fitted units, one and a half bowl sink unit, inbuilt gas hob and electric oven and spaces for dishwasher and fridge.

Stairs from the lounge with glass side panels lead up to the 2nd floor landing with an airing cupboard with a hot water cylinder, a store cupboard and a trap door to the loft. The front double bedroom has room width windows and laminate flooring. The rear double bedroom has twin double doors to inbuilt wardrobe cupboards in addition to the room dimensions and the rear aspect has horizon views of the trees in Richmond Park. The third single bedroom has windows to the front and inbuilt stepped shelves and cupboards. The family bathroom features original period fittings with heated towel rail, bath with shower mixer, rail and curtain, WC, wash hand basin and frosted windows.
